Obituaries

~ Nick Bilyk

BILYK - Nick

Sadly, on Saturday, May 18, 2019, Nick Bilyk, late of Shellbrook, SK, passed away at the age of 89 years.

Nick was the youngest in the family of 13, born March 12, 1930 in Canora, SK. He was very strong willed and mischievous, but very intelligent. He left home at the age of 14 and worked at many jobs. He then moved to Prince Albert, SK, and got a job building homes. He loved carpentry and was very good at it. Nick worked for Eskes Construction of Prince Albert for 11 years as a foreman. During this time, he also took a structural Engineering Course and received his diploma in 1952. He met Ann Pipchuk while he was working on a job in Waskesiu, SK, and they got married that same year in 1955 and made their home just outside of Prince Albert, SK, in Red Wing District. In 1960 Nick started his own construction company and contracted buildings for the Beaver Lumber Company. In 1964 they moved to Shellbrook, SK, and built a home and business there.

He built many residential and commercial buildings in the surrounding area, one of them being the Shellbrook Arena. In 1968 he took on a Polaris Dealership, as the boys loved snowmobiling and wanted to learn how to repair them. He also had the family involved at the Shellbrook Golf Course doing maintenance work and running the Pro Shop. In 1981 Nick and Ann were involved in a serious accident while at a golf Tournament in Nipawin, SK. When Ann finally came out of the hospital, she needed to be cared for, so Nick retired from contracting and worked at the Golf Course as Superintendent. Ann's love for golf motivated Nick to modify a set of golf clubs that she could use that suited her disability. They both enjoyed curling in the winter months. When the love of his life passed away in 2013, Nick moved into a Senior's Centre in Shellbrook. He was very active in the community with church functions, and he participated in fundraising for the golf course, seniors' home, hospital and Ministerial Association and many other organizations. Nick spent many weekends fishing at Cowan Lake with his sons and their families enjoying quality time together. Nick's love for gardening continued even at the Seniors Centre where he managed to plant a small garden around the edge of the building. Nick also loved playing cards with the seniors where he spent his last hours.

Nick leaves to cherish his memory, his children, Terry (Carol) Bilyk of Holbein, SK; Ben (Ingrid) Bilyk of Bruderheim, AB; Donald (Janis) Bilyk of Lloydminister, SK; David (Hallie) Bilyk of Gravenhurst, Ont; Patrick (Donna) Bilyk of Lethbridge, AB; and 16 Grandchildren, and numerous Great Grandchildren. Nick is predeceased by his wife, Ann Bilyk in 2013; his daughter in-law, Cathy Bilyk; his parents Dmetro & Polly Bilyk; and his 13 brothers & sisters.

In lieu of tributes, memorial donations may be made in memory of Nick to the Shellbrook & Districts Health Services Foundation – Long Term Care. Family and friends wishing to send online condolences are welcome to visit www.beaulacfuneralhome.com

Arrangements have been entrusted to the care of Beau "Lac" Funeral Home, Tammy Smart, Funeral Director, Shellbrook 306-747-2828.

William Fuller

FULLER - William
1941 - 2019

Bill peacefully closed his eyes and began his journey to walk with the Lord on the evening of May 15, 2019.

Bill was born October 8, 1941 in Shellbrook, SK, to Fred and Ruth Fuller. He was a baby brother for Betty and later, a big brother for Mary Jean. Bill lived his entire life on his family farm in Cameo, a small community west of Shellbrook. Bill met Sharon Kennedy of Leask, SK in 1969. Bill & Sharon were married on November 3rd, 1973. They raised 3 children on the family farm; Bonnie, Brenda, and Billy. Bill's life was devoted to his family, farming the land, and tending his cattle. Through the years, Bill enjoyed numerous camping trips with family and friends, yearly summer vacations to British Columbia, fishing, hockey games, and later on, sharing his time with his grandchildren.

The last ten years were not how he had planned to spend his retirement. Shortly after retirement from his farming operation, Bill began to suffer medical issues, all of which he faced with courage, and strength. Despite his physical challenges, he persevered, and made the most of his time. Bill was happy to have enjoyed four trips to Hawaii, multiple trips to the "south" Fuller Farm, a trip to the East Coast, and time with his family and friends.

In the spring of 2016, Bill's physical challenges became too difficult for he and Sharon to manage on the farm. It was an extremely difficult day for Bill and his entire family, when he became a resident at Whispering Pines Place, in Canwood. In March of 2017, Bill moved to his final residence at Lakeland Trail, at the Herb Bassett Home, in Prince Albert. Despite this never really "being home" Bill managed to "cope". Though Bill had daily struggles his caregivers at the Herb Bassett were nothing less than patient, kind and compassionate, they became an addition to his extend family. Bill's family would like to extend their gratitude to Dr. Michael Kelly, Dr. Rohan Cornelissen, Dr. Craig Cantin, Michelle Herbst Sutor, and the all of the staff at Lakeland Trail, in the Herb Bassett Home.

Bill is survived by: his loving spouse of 50 years Sharon; daughter, Bonnie (Mark MacInnis) and grandchildren, Janaya & Teegan; daughter, Brenda (Jason Bischler); son, William "Billy" (Theresa) and grandchildren, Wyatt, Grace, and Clara; sisters, Betty (Robert) Barkway and Mary Jean Schapansky; mother-in-law, Grace Kennedy; sister-in-law, Beverly Kennedy; brothers-in-law, Norris (Beverley) Kennedy and Marlon (Brenda) Kennedy. Bill is also survived by his honorary family: children, Lisa Gibb and Marty Robinson; grandchildren, James and Jessie Selinger; Mackenzie and Zachary Robinson; Cody, Brett, Demery and Jenaya Bischler; brothers, Don Hunter, Garry Buckingham, Jim Cooper, Larry Aug and Dennis Larson; sister, Lucille Ahlquist; numerous nieces, nephews and cousins.

Bill was predeceased by his infant son, Herman Arthur; parents, Fred and Ruth (Waller) Fuller; sister, June Marie; special uncle, Arthur Fuller; special aunt, Nell Otte; father-in-law, Herman Kennedy; brothers-in-law, Garth Kennedy and Tom Schapansky.

Happily, Bill spent his final day in the company of his beloved Sharon and special "sister" Lucille while enjoying the typical shenanigans of some of his favourite caregivers.

A Celebration of Life will be held on Wednesday, May 22, 2019, at 1:00 p.m., at the Immanuel Lutheran Church, in Parkside, SK. In lieu of tributes, memorial donations may be made in memory of Bill to the Immanuel Lutheran Church in Parkside. Family and friends wishing to send online condolences are welcome to visit www.arbormemorial.ca. Funeral arrangements are entrusted to the care of River Park Funeral Home, (306) 764-2727, Don Moriarty, Funeral Director.

Nicole Grimsrud

GRIMSRUD - Nicole
1974 - 2019

Sadly, on May 17, 2019, Nicole Rae Grimsrud, late of Prince Albert, SK, passed away peacefully surrounded by her family. Nicole was born on March 13, 1974 in Shellbrook, SK, to Doris Marlene (nee: Schutte) and Arnold Grimsrud in Shellbrook, SK.

Nicole started her schooling at Shellbrook Elementary School. In 1983 the family moved to Prince Albert and she continued her education and graduated at Carlton Comprehensive High School.

Nicole then attended the Kinsmen Workshop for most of her adult life until her health deteriorated.

She then moved to the Wheatland Lodge in Leask, SK, and from there to Shellbrook to be closer to family. Her last move was to the Herb Bassett Care Home in Prince Albert till her passing.

Nicole loved her music and the arts. She was well known for her tickles and night time visits to the fridge. Nicole also enjoyed helping staff fold laundry and drying dishes. She loved cats and was excited to go bowling and water play.

Nicole will be lovingly remembered and dearly missed by her mother, Doris Marlene Provencher (Alphonse - predeceased); her brothers, Victor Grimsrud, and Dean (Jackie) Grimsrud; her sisters, Viola (Bill) Derr, and Val (Gilles) Jean; her nieces, Heather (Warren) Grimsrud, Jamie (Dustin) Grimsrud, Tanya (Paul) Knight, Rachel (Tyler) Pilgrim, and Sarah Jean; her nephews, Jason (Yixi) Jean, and Steven (Becky) Jean; her great nieces and nephews, Orion, Atlas, Astrid, Nate, Benny, Charlie, Gracelyn, Landon, Brooklyn, Alexis, Danielle and Orion. Nicole is predeceased by her father, Arnold Grimsrud; her grandparents, Edla & Fred Grimsrud, and Myrtle & Paul Naslund.

There will be a private family graveside held at a later date. In lieu of tributes, memorial donations in memory of Nicole may be considered to either the SPCA (Box 1832 Prince Albert, SK. S6V 6J9) or to the Kinsmen Telemiracle Foundation (2217C Hanselman Court, Saskatoon, SK. S7L 6A8).

Paying Orioles' Chris Davis: a tale of 'whoa'

If you're Khris Davis, life is pretty good right now. If you're Chris Davis, you're a wealthy American athlete whose batting average is under .200 and a guilt level about four or five times higher.

If a baseball player feels any sort of guilt about getting paid a ridiculously high sum of money and then unable to perform at the level of even the rawest of rookies, then Chris Davis of the Baltimore Orioles is probably among the league leaders in that category.

Davis is getting paid $23 million for this season plus the same amount for another three years of a seven-year contract he signed in 2016. He was coming off a 47-home run season in 2015 and was in his prime at age 28. A seven-year contract made sense. Except for the fact that Davis's hitting took a sudden downward turn. His home-run production fell by nine the first year (to 38), then 12 (to 26), and then 10 more (to 16) last year. He finished the season in an 0-for-21 slump to compile a majors-worst .176 batting average, and started the 2019 campaign in an 0-for-33 funk, finally getting a hit April 13 to snap his unprecedented 0-for-54 slump.

Davis has picked up the pace slightly since then, with a .193 average in mid-May, with four home runs (on pace for 17 on the season).

Orioles management must rue the day they decided to sign Davis to that monstrous contract. Not only will he make $23 million a year through 2022, but he will receive annual deferred payments of $3.5 million every year from 2023-32 and then annual payments of $1.4 million from 2033-37, when he will be in his mid-50s.

Crazy money, crazy times, a sometimes crazy world.

Bruce Penton

And then there's Khris Davis, same pronunciation, different spelling, who is doing it right for the A's. This Davis has a contract paying him exactly $50 million for three years (counting this year) but he hit 48 home runs last year and is on pace for more than 40 this year.

Chris Davis is untradeable because no team would want to take on the contractual obligations tied to him. The Orioles could cut him, but continue to pay him, but it appears they'd rather just play him and pray to the baseball gods that he regains his hitting stroke.

Khris Davis, meanwhile, is thankful his name isn't spelled with a C.

• Dwight Perry of the Seattle Times: "Golfer Lydia Ko and instructor Ted Oh have parted ways. Ko and Oh a no-go? So ... where's Abbott and Costello when we really need them?"

• Warriors coach Steve Kerr, to reporters, when asked if he ever had to play through an eye injury: "No. It's tough to get poked in the eye when you're on the bench cheering."

• Comedy writer Jim Barach, after the Patriots used their fourth-round draft pick on a possible successor to QB Tom Brady: "Even more questions were raised about Robert Kraft's fifth- round choice ... a masseuse."

• Dwight Perry again: "Alabama publicists' biggest concern this spring: Is Nick Saban's hip-replacement surgery considered an upper- or lower-body injury?"

• Sportsnet panelist Nick Kypreos, on a video of San Jose's Joe Thornton getting hit by a puck in the .... uh, the worst place a man can get hit by a puck: "Joe knows that at this time of year, it's all about the cup."

• Neat sports nugget, apropos of nothing: "Justin Smoak's first MLB RBI in 2010 drove in Vladimir Guerrero, Sr., while both were playing with the Angels. Vladimir Guerrero, Jr.'s first MLB RBI in 2019 drove in Justin Smoak, while both were playing for the Blue Jays."

• Surprising PGA Tour winner Max Homa, who was ranked 1,282 in the world last October but elevated his game to win May's Quail Hollow championship: "I used to say when I hit rock bottom I found a shovel and kept digging,"

• Comedy writer Brad Dickson, on Twitter: "Today if anyone cuts me off in traffic and impedes my progress I'm gonna shout out the window: "What is this — the Kentucky Derby?!"

• RJ Currie of sportsdeke.com, after the Hurricanes shocked hockey experts by eliminating the Islanders in four straight: "Even Neil Diamond said, 'Sweep Carolina?'"

• The Patriots' Tom Brady, to ABC's Jimmy Kimmel, on why he isn't bothered about being only 17th on the NFL's QB pay scale: "My wife makes a lot of money."

• Comedy writer Alex Kaseberg, with the working definition of misery: "The guy who ripped up his 65-1 'Country House to win' ticket right after the Kentucky Derby race."

Stay safe around bears and other predators, government warns

Seeing bears or other large predators in the wild can be very exciting. It's important to remember, though, that these are wild animals and they can be dangerous and unpredictable. Every spring, black bears and other predators – especially young ones – move around to establish new territory and look for food. This is normal behaviour for wildlife, but it can cause challenges for humans.

In some cases, urban areas have been built along natural wildlife corridors such as rivers, forests and valleys. Wildlife travelling these corridors can sometimes come into conflict with people and property in those areas.

Remember to take the necessary safety precautions when outdoors, particularly while spending time in parks or campgrounds where there may be a higher risk of encountering predators. Leaving garbage and pet food outdoors may attract bears or other predators and animals, such as skunks.

To reduce this risk, don't leave garbage and pet food out. If you encounter a bear or other predator, keep your distance and do not try to scare the animal away or handle the situation yourself. Most often, the animals will move on without any intervention.

Anyone who finds themselves in a potentially dangerous situation with a large predator should contact their local Ministry of Environment office or call Saskatchewan's 24-hour Turn in Poachers and Polluters (TIPP) line at-1-800-667-7561. SaskTel subscribers can also reach the TIPP line by dialing #5555 on their cell phones.

Additional information about predator safety is available at www.saskatchewan.ca.

LOVING MEMORIES OF YOU, MOM AND DAD
MISSING YOU

We're missing you a little more
Each time we hear your name,
We've cried so many tears
Our hearts are broken just the same.
We miss our times together
Things in common we could share,
But nothing fills the emptiness
Because you're no longer there.
We have so many precious memories
To last our whole life through,
Each one of them reminders
Of how much we're missing you.
Missing and loving you,
From all your children. 1-21C
